CTGA Associate Membership Application

Building a strong tomato industry is the surest way to safeguard grower viability and industry growth. For almost 80 years, the California Tomato Growers Association has based its legislative, informational, advocacy and bargaining efforts on that belief. By working closely with allied businesses, the CTGA continues to build a foundation of success for the entire industry. It is this level of cooperation that has ensured California preeminence in the global tomato industry.

To recognize the role that you and other allied businesses have played in furthering the goals of the entire California tomato industry, the CTGA invites you to become a CTGA Associate. As a CTGA Associate, you will demonstrate to your colleagues, customers and the industry your support of the Association's efforts.
